P.C.

. Heard.

2. This Letters Patent Appeal is filed impugning

the order passed by the learned Single Judge of this Court wherein it has quashed and set aside the order passed by Joint Registrar as it is found that the alienation in favour of respondent no. 1 was in violation of clause (d) of Section 48 and that it was not justified in saying that he is a person who is interested in land and, therefore, the learned Single Judge allowed the petitions by quashing and setting aside the order dated 4.8.2000 passed by the Joint Registrar, Co-operative Societies.

3. We do not find any error or illegality in the impugned order. Therefore, the Letters Patent Appeal is dismissed. No order as to costs.

4. In view of the dismissal of the appeal, the civil application does not survive. The same is dismissed as infructuous.
